Bradley International Airport Opens Duty Free Shop in Partnership with International Shoppes

Windsor Locks, CT | November 4, 2016 The Connecticut Airport Authority is pleased to announce the opening of a duty free shop at Bradley International Airport.

“The addition of this duty free shop to our menu of services is an important milestone in our continuous terminal transformation process. We’re pleased to now offer our international passengers an opportunity to shop and save on premium items and to expand the shopping options for our domestic passengers,” said Kevin A. Dillon, A.A.E., Executive Director of the Connecticut Airport Authority.

The new duty free shop is managed by International Shoppes, a specialty retailer with duty free shop operations at John F. Kennedy International Airport and Boston Logan International Airport among others.

“We are excited to expand our operations to Hartford’s Bradley Airport and look forward to providing excellent customer service to its passengers. Customers can expect a full assortment of duty free liquor and tobacco products as well as duty paid fragrances, skin care sets and confection that can be sold to all customers,” said Matthew Greenbaum, Vice President of the International Shoppes.

The duty free shop is located near Gate 8 and covers approximately 500 square feet.

It will be open Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 10 AM until 6 PM and on Sundays 12 PM until 6 PM.

Passengers traveling on flights to Dublin, Ireland; Toronto and Montreal, Canada; and on the seasonal flight to Cancun, Mexico are now able to purchase items while exempt from customs duties and applicable consumption, liquor and tobacco taxes.

Passengers traveling to destinations within the U.S. can purchase certain items at the store, however, they are not exempt from the local sales tax.

Information about restrictions for both the international and domestic passenger can be reviewed with the sales associate at the time of the purchase.

About International Shoppes

International Shoppes is a specialty retailer that has, for more than 60 years, operated airport retail and duty free facilities. The Company is still owned and operated by the same founding families and is all about delivering the best service and product assortment to the traveling public.

About Bradley International Airport

Bradley International Airport is the second largest airport in New England, with a customer base that covers the entire Northeast. According to the most recent economic impact analysis, Bradley International Airport contributes $4 billion in economic activity to the state of Connecticut and the surrounding region, representing $1.2 billion in wages and 18,000 full-time jobs.

About The Connecticut Airport Authority

The CAA was established in 2011 to develop, improve, and operate Bradley International Airport and the state's five general aviation airports (Danielson, Groton-New London, Hartford-Brainard, Waterbury-Oxford, and Windham). The CAA Board consists of 11 members with a broad spectrum of experience in aviation-related and other industries, as well as government. The goal of the CAA is to make Connecticut's airports more attractive to new airlines, bring in new routes, and support Connecticut's overall economic development and growth strategy.
