Bradley International Airport Launches New, Nonstop Service to Orlando

Windsor Locks, CT – September 3, 2021 – The Connecticut Airport Authority (CAA) is pleased to announce that Sun Country Airlines launched new, nonstop service to Orlando from Bradley International Airport yesterday.

“We are thrilled that Sun Country Airlines is expanding at Bradley International Airport,” said Kevin A. Dillon, A.A.E., Executive Director of the CAA. “The addition of the new service to Orlando gives our passengers now even more options to travel conveniently and affordably to the Sunshine State. The new service also builds on the airline’s presence at the airport, which also includes nonstop flights to Minneapolis as well as cargo and charter operations. We look forward to our continued partnership with Sun Country Airlines and their growth at Bradley International Airport.”

“We are excited about our growth at Bradley International Airport and hope folks continue to enjoy our brand of convenient, affordable travel and enjoy onboard amenities such as free streaming in-flight entertainment, complimentary refreshments, and reclining seats on their way to sunny Orlando, Florida,” said Brian Davis, Sun Country Airlines Chief Marketing Officer.

The new service to Orlando International Airport (MCO) will operate twice a week seasonally, with the following schedule:

- On Thursdays, BDL to MCO: 11:10 AM EST (departure) – 2:00 PM EST (arrival)
- On Sundays, MCO to BDL: 9:30 AM EST (departure) – 12:08 PM EST (arrival)

Sun Country Airlines first introduced its passenger service at Bradley International Airport in May of this year with the launch of nonstop service to Minneapolis.

About Sun Country

Sun Country Airlines is a privately held company based in the Twin Cities of Minneapolis-St. Paul. Founded by a small group of pilots and flight attendants in 1983, the award-winning airline has established itself as a leader in leisure travel over its 37 years of service. The airline encourages guests to ‘Get to Going’, the embodiment of the brand’s purpose to help customers travel more with low fares and safe, reliable, nonstop service to more than 50 amazing destinations across the U.S., Canada, Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean. The airline offers services from its Sun Country Charters and Sun Country Vacations divisions, and also operates a cargo business.

About Bradley International Airport

Bradley International Airport (BDL) invites you to “Journey On” and once again experience the convenience of traveling at New England’s second-largest airport. Recognized nationally by leading travel publications for its ease of travel, Bradley International Airport is ready to welcome you with new nonstops, expanded services and accredited COVID-19 safety measures. The award-winning airport is operated by the Connecticut Airport Authority, and its operations are entirely self-funded. The airport contributes nearly $3.6 billion to the regional economy. About The Connecticut Airport Authority

The CAA was established in 2011 to develop, improve, and operate Bradley International Airport and the state’s five general aviation airports (Danielson, Groton-New London, Hartford-Brainard, Waterbury-Oxford, and Windham). The CAA Board consists of 11 members with a broad spectrum of experience in aviation-related and other industries, as well as government. The goal of the CAA is to make Connecticut’s airports more attractive to new airlines, bring in new routes, and support Connecticut’s overall economic development and growth strategy.
