Breeze Airways Continues Expansion at Bradley International Airport

Introducing New Nonstop Routes to Tampa, Fort Myers and New Orleans, Plus One-Stop BreezeThru Flights to Los Angeles

Windsor Locks, CT (February 14, 2023) – The Connecticut Airport Authority is pleased to announce that Breeze Airways, the Seriously Nice™ low-fare airline founded by aviation entrepreneur David Neeleman, is launching four new destinations from Bradley International Airport, including nonstop service to Fort Myers, FL, New Orleans, LA, and Tampa, FL, as well as one-stop/no plane change 'BreezeThru' flights to Los Angeles, CA.

The new routes will launch in May, 2023, with the nonstops now on sale at introductory fares, from just $39* one way.

From Bradley International Airport, the new service will operate as follows:

Fort Myers, FL	Wednesdays and Saturdays, starting May 17 From $59* one way
New Orleans, LA	Mondays and Fridays, starting May 19 through September 5 From $59* one way
Tampa, FL	Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Sundays, starting May 18 From $39* one way
Los Angeles, CA	One-stop/no plane change BreezeThru daily, starting May 17

“As Breeze continues to expand their national network, we welcome their growth at Bradley International Airport,” said Kevin A. Dillon, A.A.E., Connecticut Airport Authority Executive Director. “With the addition of new, nonstop service to Tampa, Fort Myers and New Orleans, Breeze connects our passengers nonstop to 14 exciting destinations and a growing list of one-stop cities at incredibly low fares. As the airline’s base, we appreciate their investment in our region and are grateful for their support of our vision to make travel out of Bradley International Airport even more convenient.”

“Here we grow again,” said David Neeleman, Breeze’s Founder and CEO. “We always look for routes that people are traveling today but can’t get there nonstop. Hartford residents can now get to Florida and Louisiana twice as fast, for about half the price!”

Today’s announcement comes only a week after the airline announced the launch of new nonstop service from Bradley International Airport to Vero Beach, FL, Phoenix, AZ and Raleigh-Durham, NC this month. From Bradley International Airport, Breeze also serves Charleston, SC, Columbus, OH, Jacksonville, FL, Las Vegas, NV, Norfolk, VA, Pittsburgh, PA, Richmond, VA, Sarasota-Bradenton, FL, and Savannah, GA. In addition to “BreezeThru” flights to Los Angeles, CA, announced today, the airline offers one-stop/no plane change service to Orlando, FL, and Tulsa, AK.

About Breeze Airways

Breeze Airways began service in May 2021 from 16 destinations primarily in the east and southeast of the United States. One year later, it was ranked as the No. 2 U.S. best domestic airline of 2021 by Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards. In 2022, Breeze expanded west across the U.S., including coast-to-coast flights, and now offers 102 nonstop routes between 34 cities in 19 states. Founded by aviation entrepreneur David Neeleman, Breeze operates a fleet of Embraer 190/195 and Airbus A220-300 aircraft, with a focus on providing efficient and affordable flights between secondary airports, bypassing hubs for shorter travel times. With seamless booking, no change or cancellation fees, up to 24-months of reusable flight credit and customized flight features – including complimentary family seating - delivered via a sleek and simple app, Breeze makes it easy to buy and easy to fly. Flights are on sale at www.flybreeze.com and via the Breeze app.

About The Connecticut Airport Authority

The CAA was established in 2011 to develop, improve, and operate Bradley International Airport and the state's five general aviation airports (Danielson, Groton-New London, Hartford-Brainard, Waterbury-Oxford, and Windham). The CAA Board consists of 11 members with a broad spectrum of experience in aviation-related and other industries, as well as government. The goal of the CAA is to make Connecticut's airports more attractive to new airlines, bring in new routes, and support Connecticut's overall economic development and growth strategy.
