Bradley International Airport Invites Passengers to Vote in the Condé Nast Traveler's 2023 Readers' Choice Awards

Windsor Locks, CT (May 24, 2023) – The Connecticut Airport Authority (CAA) is pleased to announce that voting is now open for Condé Nast Traveler's annual Readers' Choice Awards and Bradley International Airport is once again in the running for the "Best Airport" honor.

In 2022, Bradley International Airport was voted the "2nd Best Airport in the U.S." in the survey, a notable recognition that has continued to spotlight the airport nationally. This year's nomination comes on the heels of the ongoing improvements the airport has undertaken to offer the most convenient travel experience in New England.

Passengers can vote for Bradley International Airport by visiting the Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice website, choosing "Airports" and selecting "Hartford (BDL)" from the list of nominees. Airports are rated on several topics, such as design and layout, food and shopping options, accessibility, and more.

Voting is open until June 30th, 2023, and results will appear on the Condé Nast Traveler website and in the November print issue. Plus, all individuals who share their travel experiences have the chance to win a vacation to Antarctica and across the Americas, courtesy of Condé Nast Traveler.

For the past 35 years, the Readers' Choice Awards have recognized excellence in the travel industry, with nearly a quarter of a million readers and travel enthusiasts voting in last year's survey.

About The Connecticut Airport Authority

The CAA was established in 2011 to develop, improve, and operate Bradley International Airport and the state's five general aviation airports (Danielson, Groton-New London, Hartford-Brainard, Waterbury-Oxford, and Windham). The CAA Board consists of 11 members with a broad spectrum of experience in aviation-related and other industries, as well as government. The goal of the CAA is to make Connecticut's airports more attractive to new airlines, bring in new routes, and support Connecticut's overall economic development and growth strategy.
