Bradley International Airport Welcomes the Launch of New, Nonstop Service to San Juan with Spirit Airlines

Windsor Locks, CT (June 7, 2023) – The Connecticut Airport Authority is pleased to announce that Spirit Airlines is launching new, nonstop flights to San Juan, Puerto Rico today. The inaugural flight from Bradley International Airport (BDL) to Luis Muñoz Marín International Airport (SJU) will depart this evening.

“Exploring the Island of Enchantment is now easier than ever for our Hartford Guests with the launch of our new, nonstop flights to San Juan,” said John Kirby, Vice President of Network Planning at Spirit Airlines. “We’re excited to connect the two cities with our low fares that give BDL travelers More Go to great vacation destinations.”

“With Spirit’s launch of new, nonstop service to San Juan, we are thrilled to offer our passengers more low-cost travel options,” said Kevin A. Dillon, A.A.E., Executive Director of the Connecticut Airport Authority. “Spirit Airlines has been key to our route network development strategy, and we thank the airline for including Bradley International Airport in their expansion of flights to Puerto Rico.”

The new route operates year-round, three times a week on Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays. The 4-hour flight departs Bradley International Airport at 9:30 PM.

About The Connecticut Airport Authority

The CAA was established in 2011 to develop, improve, and operate Bradley International Airport and the state's five general aviation airports (Danielson, Groton-New London, Hartford-Brainard, Waterbury-Oxford, and Windham). The CAA Board consists of 11 members with a broad spectrum of experience in aviation-related and other industries, as well as government. The goal of the CAA is to make Connecticut's airports more attractive to new airlines, bring in new routes, and support Connecticut's overall economic development and growth strategy.
