Frontier Airlines to Begin Nonstop Service from Bradley International Airport to Miami

Windsor Locks, CONN – November 19, 2024 – The Connecticut Airport Authority is pleased to announce that ultra-low fare carrier Frontier Airlines will be launching nonstop service between Bradley International Airport (BDL) and Miami International Airport (MIA). Flights will begin on February 13, 2025 and operate twice a week.

“Thanks to Frontier Airlines for their continued investment at Bradley International Airport,” said Kevin A. Dillon, A.A.E., Connecticut Airport Authority Executive Director. “We look forward to their growth and a strengthened partnership with the addition of nonstop service to Miami.”

Currently, Frontier also flies between Bradley International Airport and Atlanta (ATL), Orlando (MCO), Raleigh-Durham (RDU), San Juan (SJU) and Tampa (TPA).

“We are excited to launch this new ultra-low cost service from Hartford to Miami this winter,” said Josh Flyr, vice president of network and operations design, Frontier Airlines. “For both Hartford-area consumers looking to travel to the Sunshine State, and for Floridians wanting to visit beautiful New England, this new service will offer Frontier’s signature affordability and convenience.”

To celebrate the new route, Frontier is offering low introductory fares. For more information and to book a ticket, visit <https://www.flyfrontier.com>

About The Connecticut Airport Authority

The CAA was established in 2011 to develop, improve, and operate Bradley International Airport and the state's five general aviation airports (Danielson, Groton-New London, Hartford-Brainard, Waterbury-Oxford, and Windham). The CAA Board consists of 11 members with a broad spectrum of experience in aviation-related and other industries, as well as government. The goal of the CAA is to make Connecticut's airports more attractive to new airlines, bring in new routes, and support Connecticut's overall economic development and growth strategy.
