Breeze Airways Announces Nonstop Service from Bradley International Airport to Louisville

Windsor Locks, CONN – January 28, 2026 – The Connecticut Airport Authority (CAA) is pleased to announce that Breeze Airways will soon launch nonstop service between Bradley International Airport (BDL) and Muhammad Ali International Airport (SDF) in Louisville, Kentucky.

The summer seasonal service will begin on Friday, May 29, 2026, and operate twice a week on Mondays and Fridays using an Airbus A220 aircraft.

“The service to Louisville offers our passengers a new nonstop destination, providing additional convenience at affordable fares,” said Michael W. Shea, Executive Director & CEO of the CAA. “We are very thankful to Breeze for once again expanding its footprint at Bradley International Airport and the investments they continue to make to serve our community.”

“As one of our original bases, Hartford has played an important role in shaping how we’ve built our network,” said David Neeleman, Founder and CEO of Breeze Airways. “This new summer seasonal route will give our Guests in Connecticut an easy way to visit a beautiful region in northern Kentucky with easy access to great attractions like the Louisville Slugger and Kentucky Derby Museums.”

In addition to service to Louisville (SDF), Breeze also flies nonstop between BDL and 22 other cities, including Charleston (CHS), Cincinnati (CVG), Columbus (CMH), Daytona Beach (DAB), Fort Myers (RSW), Greensboro/Winston-Salem (GSO), Greenville/Spartanburg (GSP), Jacksonville (JAX), Las Vegas (LAS), Myrtle Beach (MYR), New Bern (EWN), Norfolk (ORF), Orlando (MCO), Phoenix (PHX), Pittsburgh (PIT), Raleigh/Durham (RDU), Richmond (RIC), Sarasota/Bradenton (SRQ), Savannah (SAV), Tampa (TPA), Vero Beach (VRB), and Wilmington (ILM).

About The Connecticut Airport Authority

The CAA was established in 2011 to develop, improve, and operate Bradley International Airport and the state's five general aviation airports (Danielson, Groton-New London, Hartford-Brainard, Waterbury-Oxford, and Windham). The CAA Board consists of 11 members with a broad spectrum of experience in aviation-related and other industries, as well as government. The goal of the CAA is to make Connecticut's airports more attractive to new airlines, bring in new routes, and support Connecticut's overall economic development and growth strategy.
